

everson tesla incorporated

Everson Tesla, Inc. is an international manufacturer of coils, motors, generators and resistive and superconducting electromagnets, and systems for mass transit, medical equipment, national laboratories, semi-conductor equipment and a variety of other commercial and government applications. We are a technological leader and innovator providing the best components, products and services for our customers. Due to continued growth in our business we have the following full time position available.

TECHNICAL PRODUCTION

This position entails electro/mechanical assembly, coil winding, general mechanical operations, use of hand tools, etc. Candidates should be able to read blueprints and use measurement devices (micrometers, calipers). Individuals must have strong mechanical aptitude or mechanical experience. Welding, brazing, electrical test equipment a plus. We need people who have a good work history and a good attendance record. Ability to work shift work is necessary.

QUALIFICATIONS

Full time, second shift, with excellent benefits and competitive wages. EOE M/F/D/V

Education Level: Vocational/Technical School

Number of Hours: 40 per Week

Job Category: Permanent

Email your resume and cover letter to: careers@eversontesla.com

NO CALLS, Please.